“ My Loving Dearest Niece April Cheryl so many Memories that will be cherished, however I'd just like to share one of her Thoughtfull Moments. April was wearing a Blouse that looked so Good on her I just had to Compliment her on it when she came up for her Grandma's Funeral. A few days after she left I saw her Blouse hanging in my Closet. OMG! I called to let her know she forgot one of her Blouses. She said no I didn't forget it I left it there for you. Wow I was so shocked! Yes I will cherish it Forever & will wear it on 7/24/21 again as I wore it on her Mothers Day Memorial Celebration Honoring her Life. Know that Aunt Necie miss you much and will always remember the Love we shared for each other as well as the Many Fun Times we had Together thru the Years. No more Pain nor more sorrow. RIH & say Hi to Grandma tomorrow. Forever Love...

“ April and I met at work, a relationship that became a 15 year friendship. She supported, showed up, and cheer led not only my personal milestones and events, she and I belong to an in work sister circle of professionals and she always supported, showed up, and cheer led our endeavors as well. April was someone who fought, worked, played, and loved hard, even when others would bough out, April always volunteered and hung in there. She is one of the strongest, forgiving people I know.

I'm still learning from her ability to listen intently without interrupting and focusing on what the person is saying versus listening to have your answer ready. I haven't mastered it yet :-) but I'm still trying.

I miss her each and every day and know I will never meet anyone like her in life again.

I love you April Robinson, I'm so very, very, blessed, God allowed you to be part of my journey. Thank you for being wonderfully you!!

“ I am very sad to hear of April's passing, as I worked with her for almost 10 years. Over that period I witnessed her growth as a co-worker, trying to expand her skills and responsibilities. She was very proud of her family, and her love showed. She also showed great courage in dealing with her illness and physical challenges. Know that many people will remember her with fondness and respect.
