“ Mrs. Betty Covington, 'Mom Betty', played a significant role in my life, and my family's. Her love, care, concern, and especially prayers were critical. I'm very grateful, and her example of being one of Christ's servants will be a memory passed down to future generations. - That is a great legacy.

Memory: Mom Betty took my brother and I to the Atlantic City Medical Center cafeteria for some ice cream, since my mother had to work and there was no sitter for us. It was especially enjoyable, since my mother would rarely splurged like that!

“ Ms. Betty Covington was a prayer warrior. She gave my son his first Bible when he was born. She prayed for my son and my family. She was a wonderful woman of God.
