“ My adopted sister Bridget and I were in high school together, then we met again in London in the late 60s and again in California in the late 80s. I became a part of the family in the late 50s when her brother and I became best friends. Their home was my home away from home and I socialized closely with all the brothers. Bridget was always a quiet unassuming lady. May she Rest in Eternal Peace.

“ We sit here and ponder how very much
we would like to talk with you today,
there are so many things
that we didn't get to say.
Our beloved sister, we know how much you care for us,
and how much we care for you,
and each time we think of you,
we know you'll miss us too.
An angel came and took you by the hand, and said
your place was ready in heaven with Daddy, Mummy and Ann , far above...
and you had to leave behind, all those you dearly loved.
You had so much to live for, you had so much to do...
You lived a full life, you achieved your aspirations...
It still seems impossible that God was taking you.
And though your life on earth is past, in Heaven it starts anew.
You'll live for all eternity, just as God has promised you.
And though you've walked through Heaven's gate,
we're never far apart,
for every time we think of you
you're right here, deep within our heart.

Your Ever Loving Brothers
