“ Hey mom, yeap it's me again I'm the one child that determined to keep your memory alive. I can't and never will be able to wrap my mind around you being gone. I know that some people were able to just move on with their lives but I'm the one child that will always remain loyal to you even know you are in heaven. you & I always shared a very special bond & we always will. & I knew that's why we always shared anything with one another was because we both shared that special bond. there are no words that I can express for everything you did for me. because even in death you made sure that I would be taken care of. but my sweet friend I would rather have you back. I love & miss you so very much. your loving & kind daughter penny

“ Hello my sweet mother and best friend, it is now December 22nd 2021 in my heart still aches for you more and more everyday.and I know that you are in God's hands right now Mom and he's looking out for you. And I still wish you were here yep things are pretty much more upside down now than they have ever been and I know you're still looking out for me which is why I decided to move on my sweet mother. I would say that you will probably be shocked about some of the things that's going on but you wouldn't but I'm so glad that you given me everything that I will ever need to move on you see my sweet mom there are things that I know you had to learn for yourself and there's some things that I had to learn for myself especially after your passing.but I know you are still guiding me decision I have made to do what I need to do. Thank you for being such a wonderful sweet mother to me and all your other children even though some people didn't deserve your love you still gave it to them because that was just the type of sweet mother you were. Thank you for all the years of friendship and love and thank you for the blessings that you left me not just with your love thank you for having such a wonderful and giving big heart.I was thinking the other day about you and how people used to laugh they say we were like twins because we did so many things together shopping, slumber parties, girl talk,trips and many other blessings that you left me you are truly a remarkable woman ,friend,& great mother, now it's time for me to get ready to embark on a New journey and that's all because of you. I will constantly write on this page about you cuz you're a wonderful woman and I of all people will always keep your memory alive. I love you very very much my sweet mom and best friend and even though I know that you look hot and he's looking out for you I also have the assurance that no one else can ever hurt you again.and that you are not suffering anymore. I miss you so so much and I love you very very much. Your broken hearted daughter and friend Penny 🥺❤❤

“ Hi Mom, I was always be the child that keeps her mom's memory alive even though you're gone.it was extremely hard for me a few days ago mom,because even though it has been 7 years since you've been gone I feel like you just passed yesterday.there is no mother in this world that could ever compare to the type of mother and friend you were not only to all of your children,but you were also kind and a great friend to everyone. You are such a wonderful and giving person. I will never understand why god took such a wonderful and special Spirit away. I miss you so much everyday mom I find myself smiling so much cuz I remember when you and I did our shopping trips together people say we were like twins we were so close.I'm never going to get over you passing mom it's a hole in my heart that will never heal. The only comfort I can have at this moment is that you're with God he's looking after you,and know that no one could ever hurt you again and that you're not in any more pain your resting.I love and miss you so much my sweet best friend and loving mom.RIP my sweet mom ❤️❤️❤️ your sweet and loving daughter penny

“ Hi Mom, I don't know why I feel the need to keep writing to you. because I know you are gone to heaven but some how me writing you helps me deal with losing you better. I just about hear your sweet voice telling me again be careful and watch out for certain people and certain things. I live by those words every single day. mom I have learned that the world is not only a dangerous place but some of the people in it are what makes it so dangerous. I still find myself struggling with you being gone even now but I also keep in mind and take with me some of the last things that you told me. And some days that helps me be able to cope with things that are happening right now. I tell you kids today Mom they don't know what the value of of having a wonderful loving mother. And yes my boys did turn out to be very handsome boys and I'm very proud of them. Thank you for still watching over me from heaven mom. You are my very best friend and you were a terrific mom. Rest in peace my friend your sweet daughter penny

“ Mom I carry you with me everyday.some days are good for me and other days I find myself crying for you.you were an amazing woman and person your entire life.I often find myself wondering how you had the strength to deal with some of the awful things you had to deal with.you were always the one person that was there for everyone.even when they didn't deserve your love, help, or kindness.I admire and love you mom so so much.and I miss you so very much.the only thing that gets me through alot of bad days when I feel like I'm losing my mind.I think about what an amazing mom you were to me and all of the fun things you and I shared over the last few years of your life.I think about when you and I shopped,spent our nights together at your house being silly and having fun.even know I know your tired body resting with god now.you and I will see one another again my friend.but until that day comes know that you will always be with me.and I love and miss you more than words can say.I love you my sweet mom and friend.RIP your loving daughter penny
