“ My prayers go out to the family. Chad and I where friends since we where 15yrs old. From Hinesville to Savannah. We spent so much time together to loose touch during our college years. For years I searched for you but, never expected to find this.

You where out of site but never out of my mind bro. RIP Chad. Until we meet again.

“ Rest in Paradise, Peace and Heaven Chad. You was a very polite, intelligent and Handsome young Man. From the time I first met you at Aunt Dorothy's birthday party that was held at my cousin Edward Jr.'s house...I was thinking that you and your Mother Susan was brother's and sisters. It would be about 10 years later that I find out and realize that you two was Mother and Son. And Wow...you could really rock any outfit that you put on...Handsome as Ever! I thought he to be a MODEL! Anyway...I can remember that day like it was yesterday and you was a complete Joy to be around. I took so many pictures that day and you really stand out in every picture of you that I tool. Rest easy my dear.... You will truly be missed. <3 Brenda Locklin-Johnson (cousin)

“ To my loving son, I missed you already. I am trying to be so strong knowing that you are in a better place. All I can think of is when I first held you in my arms. Now I have to look at your picture every day to feel you close to me. I want to wake up and think this is a bad dream and you are still here with me. My heart is shattered in small pieces. I pray to God to help me make it another day. I always knew you was a very special person. So articulate, smart, intelligent, very caring, and did I say very handsome. I was so proud to be your mom. I want to thank God for letting me have you for 38 years. Keep smiling down on us and I will see you on the other side. I will never say Good bye, see you later.

“ Demarco, I can't believe you're gone. You were one of my closest friends, and I am blessed to have had you in my life over the past 5 years. Every time I needed a shoulder to lean on, or an ear to listen, you were there. My heart aches to know you are gone from this earth. Although I know you are in a better place, I will still miss you forever. May God comfort your family and hold them in the palm of his hand during this time. Rest easy sweet Demarco! I love you!
