“ I had the pleasure of working with Cindy at Unlimited Services for 3 years. She had a smile that could light up the room. When I first started working with Advantage, she made me feel welcome. You all are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ My sincere condolences to Cindy's family. I had the privilege of working with Cindy for many years at Unlimited Services. She is an inspiration to all of us--co-workers, clients and families alike. To say she was a hard worker is an understatement; she was loyal, calm, cool and collected and always willing to assist others. She was someone who made you want to come to work each day just to be able to be greeted by that sweet melodious voice. She met each and every day and each and every person with a beautiful smile that will never be matched. So, I will imagine her now in Heaven's "lobby" greeting other new arrivals with her distinctive "Hello, honey!" Cindy, thank-you for sharing your gifts with us.

“ My deepest condolences and heartfelt sympathy to the Jackson, Sorrell and Norman families. Praying for you and wishing you God's peace. I am so very grateful and truly blessed for the gift of our friendship. Some nearly 25 years ago, Cindy, "CJ", was a coworker. On the job and in life, she was supportive, encouraging and always had my back. She saw and wanted the best for others. God saw the best in her. CJ became a Special friend. She was vibrant, funny,generous, loving,kind,understanding and a true friend. She was beautiful from the inside out. CJ was always sparkling and shining. We became family. We shed tears and comforted each other. We celebrated weddings, birthdays, baby showers,church and Pastor's anniversaries. In April 2018, she Richard renewed their vows. She was a gorgeous bride. We enjoyed planning and shopping for our special events. Most recently, she was so excited for me as I became a first time grandmother to my little "CJ". The first time we ate at Red Lobster,she couldn't eat the biscuits without any jelly. I found some jelly in my purse. We enjoyed the biscuits and each other company. I had her back too. I miss you. Long may you shine my forever friend. I love you always.
