“ Will never forget you and your wife . All the love and hospitality you showed me and my kids always . Us all laughing , talking , joking , cooking . U were the same always to everyone . U never changed from day one when I met you and your wife. Calling me on Friday Night Concert and teasing us about watching Hallmark movies all night. U will always be my Brother , Now your my Brother in Heaven !

My cousin is an understatement. You were my brother. We have so many memories of laughter and just stories of all types of adventures. You are the reason we stayed together. I will miss our family gatherings, our sing offs (karaoke), our spade games. You will always be in my heart. I will never let your memory go. I love you!!!

Where do I start bro . I met you and we clicked like we knew each other like long time friends. We would talk a couple times a week as you worked , as well tailgating kicking it on weekends. U even sold me the Green Lexus that I had restored u would always say sell me my car back after it was painted. You will truly be missed my bro . Thank you for the laughs we shared it was truly a blessing to get to know you and search lots of memories together. My condolences goes out to the wife and kids Love you bro . WHODAT FOR LIFE bro ..*
