“ I am still trying to process that my God baby Earl is really gone. Your mother Sandra, Beverly and I were best friends. The 3 amigos. I remember when you were 11 and still a baby to me. I saw you grow into a funny, smart, and handsome young man who had his whole life ahead of him. In this life, we all have trials and tribulations, and struggles that we all strive to overcome. You proved that as long as we keep moving forward, and hold on to God's hand we can accomplish and get through this thing we call life. As with the rest of the family, I am devastated at your sudden passing. However, I know God had a plan for your life and I will not question it. I have memories that will last me a lifetime, and I find comfort in knowing that you are resting comfortably along Sandra in God's arms. Auntie Cheri loves you, and you will NEVER be forgotten. Rest in peace my sweet baby, rest in peace.
