“ To the family of the late Earl Smith,

Words can't begin to express the sympathy we feel on the untimely death of your beloved Earl Smith. He will be missed by everyone that knew him.

I hope the expressions of sympathy that you must be receiving from everyone provide some consolation to you. Hopefully, knowing how much he was loved will give you a measure of comfort.

It's difficult to lose someone, especially when they have played such a pivotal role in your lives. I know family was very important to him and he was so proud to be a husband, father, and friend. It was his greatest achievement and all of you meant so much to him. Please remember that and allow it to give you some measure of comfort for the days ahead. Eddie and himself wore the uniform well and with honor.

With blessings, love, and prayers,

Thomas Solomon and Family
