“ I didn't know Bishop Ernest Lattimore personally, but I'm blessed to know his daughters, Kim and Kandis, and his sweet granddaughters. They are incredibly kind and generous people who always go out of their way to help others — a true reflection of Bishop Lattimore's legacy. His spirit of generosity and love will surely live on through them and future generations. I believe he's smiling down from heaven and praying for us all.

Thank you, Bishop Lattimore, for your kindness and for honoring us with your presence at our last Christmas recital. You will be deeply missed.

“ Bishop though you are gone, your light lives on in every laugh you sparked, every word of kindness you gave, and the impact you made in my life. You were more than a good friend —you were a blessing. I carry your memory not as a weight, but as a guide, reminding me to live fully, love deeply, and to always love God. Thank you for being my friend!! My condolence to Barbara and all the family know that I'm praying your strength in the Lord!

“ We always called Ernest, Eugene. We were first cousins...his mother and my father were brother and sister. I was proud being Eugene's cousin. He was truly one of the nicest people I've ever met and I loved him dearly. I never saw him get angry and he had the patience of Job. I know I will see him again and I can't wait. My deepest sympathy goes how to his wife Barbara, his daughters and grandchildren. He will truly be missed ❤️
