“ Mrs Ethel Simmons Kilgore was my first grade teacher. She was the closest thing to my mother away from home (at school school). She was so special to her students .I loved her and I know that she loved us. During those tender years she provided for us a profound educational foundation, and great character building techniques that have stood the test of time. She was so pretty and so kind. Just a beautiful person in-side-out. I will always remember her. God Bless and strengthen you during your time of sorrow. Lanelle Martin Peters .

I, too, share your sentiments. As a first grade student in a completely new environment, "Miss Simmons" went out of her way to serve as my surrogate mother, even visiting me when I was kept at home due to serious illness. A wonderful role model, teacher and friend.

“ Aunt Ethel, knowing you all of my life has been a joy. You are one very special person that I know. You have been like a second mother to just about all of your nieces and nephews. I will miss you, miss giving you a hug when I see you, and when I see your friend come to McDonald's and you won't be there. Love you Aunt Ethel.

“ Aunt Ethel,

I will always remember your beautiful smile, that matched your beautiful personality. You were truly a beautiful person not only on the outside, but on the inside as well. I will forever cherish our last visit and conversation - but never imagined that would be my last time visiting you. There is no one else who can stand and recite a poem as elegant as you. You have been more than just an aunt - you were a mother/grandmother to all your nieces and nephews. Although our hearts are hurting, we know you are where you've been longing to be and that is home with God. I know the reunion with our loved ones who got there before you is awesome! Missing you always. Rest on my dear aunt - you have worked tirelessly in God's vineyard, now it's time to take your rest.
