“ I am so shocked and still saddened to hear about the passing of Mrs. Gaynelle. She was such a vibrant and beautiful person and had an infectious spirit. You could not help but love her. I am certain that Smith Chapel will never be the same. You could literally experience her sentiments of thanks to God through her singing, shouting, and serving on the Ushers' and Mothers' Board. I am praying for Ms. Ceecee and the entire Family. May her husband, sisters, and Miss Pinkie meet her at the gates.

The Sharp family was sorry to hear of Mother Gaynell Thompson's passing. Our family has learned so much under her direction of Sunday School and Usher Ministry. I'm sure Smith Chapel will miss her dearly. To the family of our dear friend, our condolences are with you! There is no sorrow on earth that heaven can't heal. In time, your sorrow will be replaced with thoughts of joy and laughter as you remember things of the pass. I'm a witness to that. We know God loves her best. Pastor Theron Sharp and Sister Gina Sharp and Family.
