“ I’m utterly in shock and terribly saddened having heard that George has passed away. I’ve known George for 30 years, initially as a co-worker at Whirlpool Corp and subsequently as a dear friend. George was one of my people. While we typically talked on the phone once or twice a year, I was always grateful to connect with him. We would often reminisce, laugh, and talk about everything under the sun. Like clock-work, whenever my birthday arrived, I would get a call from George wishing me a “happy birthday.” I don’t recall George ever missing a birthday over the 30 years that I knew him. How rare is that. George was a treasure of a friend. He was one of a kind. I will so miss his yearly birthday calls. I will miss him tremendously.

“ Went to school and played football with George. George was and amazing man both on the field and off the field. I ran in to him a few years back in Loganville and we stood there remembering the old days of Loganville and how we both had grown. George will be missed by family and friends.

“ When I was first starting out and a newlywed, George was working at Whirlpool. We worked together at Strict's cornermart in Loganville together in the evening for extra money. He saw that it was hard for me to get to the laundry mat and got me a washer and dryer at cost from his workplace. I will never forget that act of kindness.
