“ To the Culbreath family: continue to look to the Hills for your strength. and help. God has all power in his hands , and he is our source of strength and our comforter. Just know that God is a stronghold in times like this.
I love you all and I'm praying your burdens will be lighter soon.
Thank God for a life well lived and the beautiful home going. It's by Grace that we have made it thus far and Grace will carry us through this difficult time.

*Peace ,Blessings and Love to my family,
Mary Ann
Praying everyday for you.*

“ Family, please know that we the fellow employees of General Motors where we worked with Harold for many years, offer our condolences. We have visited in the past and enjoyed his wonderful friendship at your home, he loved to host us by sharing fish that he caught. We feel your loss, but heaven is gaining a deacon who served well.
