“ I am so very sorry for your loss. I look forward to seeing him when god's promise is fulfilled from john5:28,29 and revelation21:3,4. I hope they serve as an anchor for your soul during this storm of tribulation.

“ I would like to say my time of knowing Harold was a laughing time in my life they say laughter makes the heart grow fonder and i can say he was one of a kind. One minute he would have a serious look on his face then the next he would give you this smile , you just didnt know what to expect from him aka. Snake is what we called him. But i will miss the laughter he gave me at the time in my life when i was down. I have learned that God put people in your path for a reason some of us dont see it but God knows what he is doing he had me meet a friend at a time of need that was needed in my life and maybe in his because at that time he was able to tell me bout his accomplishments he was getting. He had 2jobs, bought a car, always talked about his kids and his grandkids and how he enjoyed going to church and seeing how God was blessing him in his life. I was glad to be a friend he was able to tell his acheivements to. He will be missed as a friend who had laughter and jokes in him that i would never forget. Rest in Peace my friend. Your friend
