“ Deepest sympathy to the Johnson family in the passing of Judge Horace J. Johnson, Jr. May God comfort you and the community in this time of grief and hardship. My mother and father, Theolia Johnson and Bennie Hammonds Sr., grew up in Covington. Horace Johnson represents the best the Bible talks about when it says, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant. Enter into the joy of your master."

“ During many of the trying times as Covington City Council member Judge Johnson would often send me notes of encouragement and appreciation for taking a stand on tough issues. I was always grateful for his going the “second mile” to acknowledge what we as elected officials sometimes feel that people don’t see or care what we sometimes go through. But he knew and could definitely relate! Thank God for a MAN like Horace who came and trailblazed his way wherever God placed him! To the family, this community has lost a true and tried servant of the people . This is what the Lord ask of us to love the Lord with all our heart and mind and love our neighbor as ourselves. Judge Johnson exemplified those attributes on a daily basis . May God continue to bless you - his devoted family. I will continue to hold you in my prayers. Love-

“ I am extremely saddened that I (and many others) could not be in person to celebrate the wonderful life of Judge Horace J Johnson, Jr. His dedication to so many made us what we are today. I , Johnathan E Henderson, am grateful that he had the courage to stand & take on my case in 1991 over the Valedictorian controversy. Only a man like Judge Johnson had enough integrity and compassion to handle such an ordeal. I am sorry we didn’t get to do lunch this past couple of years; but we will have to do it at God’s welcome table at the appointed time. May God bless Michelle & his dons as they carry on his enormous legacy.

“ I thank God for my lifelong friend, Horace. He loved our Sandhill Community. We were only three weeks apart in age and grew up together. He was a great supporter of our beloved community. He and I loved and supported our Alma Maters, Oxford College and Emory University. I will cherish the memories. My prayers are with Michelle, James, Bryant, Mrs. Lottie, and Yvette. May The Lord continue to strengthen us all.
