“ On this day. I remember James, Man of God, uncompromising God's vision of him. James lived in the future, making good on God's Destiny, making good and opportunities for a lively future. I Praise God for the life of love, commitment, and his heart to build up others, restore in places of loss, and offer God's Goodness of Gifting...letting the love of life, the blessings of the possibilities in others, and his heart for his darling Sweet Chiquita be his guide posts.
In this Black History month, I remember James as keeping his charge given by God. Love and Blessings to James' Family. Aunt Cecile

“ Lord have mercy!! I am truly at a loss for words. James and Chiquita are the epitome of what a perfect union was! They were not just a married couple, they were the best of friends. They adored each other so much and their love for each other shined on everyone who was around them, especially me! I sure am going to miss teasing him about his sorry Dallas Cowboys (sorry James 😊) as I am the biggest Redskins fan he knows!! My heart goes out to his family. Chiquita, yes I am in Maryland now but I am only an hour and a half airplane ride away. I love you girlfriend❤️❤️❤️
