“ My heartfelt condolences goes out to Mr. Jimmy Norwood loving family. I have fun memories of Mr. Jimmy Norwood, growing up in Harristown together. From being a little fat boy, to playing football and me trying to tackle him, camping out all night in his new tent in his backyard, working out on his weight set building his muscles, working at the Freezer Locker grocery store with his father. We going to Lake Spivey together on the 4th of July, in my 1957 Chevrolet, passing Jerry Belcher and buddies in their slow moving little white Falcon. These and other wonderful times will always be treasure for a life time. Thanks you. Tommie P Johnson USN Retired San Diego, CA
