I just tried to call you Ms. Simms and your phone was cut off. I've tried calling you a few times before with no answer, but now it's off. I knew something wasn't right. So reluctantly i googled you and sure enough. I am truly saddened today. I regret that i didn't go see you in the nursing home. I was your angel on earth. You're home health nurse. You called me the dancing nurse. I'm glad i made you laugh during our visits. I miss you dearly. This makes me realize that i need to slow down. You always told me that being in a hurry will make you sick. I love you. Please say hello to our heavenly father for me. Till we meet again. RIP Ms. Joanne. 💕💕💕💕💕💕💕💕

“ Ms. Joanne was my moms room mate at Riverside for the last month. She was such a sweet spirit everytime I went to see my mom. I was heartbroken when I heard of her passing on Friday. My condolences and sympathy is with the family. To be absent from the body is to be present with the LORD. Much Prayer.

“ Ms. Joann was my mothers room mate at Riverside. My family grew to love her like family. She was so sweet to my mom and to us and looked after her for us when we weren't able to be there. She told us stories of her younger years and of her friends and family. She was devastated when she lost her last son Tim and always wanted to keep her blanket she named Tim with her at all times after his death. I would like to think both her sons welcomed her with open arms in heaven Friday morning. Ms. Joann you were one of a kind and we will never forget you and love you forever.

“ I remember meeting Mrs Joann at the Beauty salon Bridgett was fixing our hair at Bertha’s Beauty Salon on the square. She would always bring a Cake to the shop for us to sample and she would take orders. We would laugh and talk about cooking cakes and recipes. The best part of our time in the Salon together we would talk in enjoy each other’s company. Rest in peace Joann!!!
