“ I enjoyed the time Deacon Hammonds and I spent together sitting on his front porch talking about life, and Raymond and Ricky. He was very faithful about making certain the Communion wine was in place each month and gently coached and tutored me on its preparation. May God's ministering Angels comfort you during this time for we know that earth has no sorrows that heaven cannot heal. Mother Deborah Parham

“ I am Lois (Jean) form Detroit, John Robert is my brother in-law, I will keep the family in my prayers.
John Robert was good the my to family and loved my mother Ms. Willie Wade. I will all remember him as that loving brother in-law.
May god keep you and your family.
