“ Josephine and I met in 1966 when we both were members of the UWM Upward Bound Program. She befriended a group of rival students that became lifelong friends.. . She asked me to be the maid of honor in her wedding and I gladly accepted. I thought we would be best friends forever but we grew apart ...things that I thought would bring us closer together did not for reasons I cannot explain. She is buried less than 30 miles away from my home in Ga. I want to send my belated condolences to her children and husband . She was very special to me .I will treasure our youthful memories!! God Bless Jo!
