“ I miss you. I didn't take you serious when you said if you went back to Atlanta you would be harmed. I wish you had opened up more to me. I'm truly sorry this happened to you bro and I'm happy for all the times I made you feel love. you helped me to become more affectionate and not be afraid to show affection, to feel love and not hide it. I only learned about your passing yesterday when I googled your name to find your Facebook because I changed my number and phone months ago and was caught up with my newborn son. I never intended to leave your side I always planned on coming back. I love you and I miss you so much I've never lost someone so special to me, this one hurts really deep. I've been going through so much these past few months my world just hasn't been right, only to find out you've been gone all this time. We had nothing but great moments together and I thank You for being one of the highest points and one of the best part of my life. I will take you with me for as far as I go into time, in this life, because I will never forget you. and for your family and anyone else who loves you I pray they find peace and closure.
