“ Kim...Heaven has gotten a little brighter with that big beautiful smile of yours. While my heart hurts because I want see you on this side, I can rejoice in the spirit knowing I will see you again in Heaven. To Reginald and Ms. Joyce...know that we are praying your strength in the Lord and we love you dear. We are family and nothing will ever changed that. Love Alway, Brent and Liz Brown

“ My condolences to the Kilgore and King family at this most difficult time. I met Kim in high school at the Clemson Career Workshop our rising 11th and 12h grade years. We immediately clicked and started a 20+-year friendship with Darcova King, Jackie Barr, and Alycya Miller. We stayed friends until this moment. I even hung out with Kim and her sorors during their Centennial, even while teasing that my Delta Centennial was coming! Kim loved her sorority and was a devoted member. We love Kim and she will surely be missed. Her outgoing, friendly, warm, compassionate, and loving personality made all of us her adopted sisters. She is not here presently, but she is not forgotten and God will not forget her! I will keep you all in prayer. All of our friends from the Clemson Career Workshop send our love. Love Darcova, Jackie, and Alycya. CCW 1989-1991!

“ My heart sank upon hearing of Kim's passing. I met and knew Kim from our time at Troy State (92-96). Her positive attitude and upbeat spirit was always refreshing. To the Kilgore family, may God give you strength and that special peace that only he can give to make it through this difficult time.

“ Kim, although we had lost touch since our school days, I still remember our talks and laughter while riding the school bus home in the afternoon. I will hold on to those memories. May you rest in peace! And, to the family, I extend my heartfelt love and sympathy to you, although you all are like my family too being that we grew up in the Carter Hill Baptist Church community.- Tammy "Thompson" Keller and son, Tran

“ Kim was one of the first people I met at Troy State University. She was so friendly and kind. I will never forget homecoming our freshman year. Her family came to the game and introduced me to tail gaiting, I had never done it before! Kim had the biggest hugs and was truly a kind spirit. She will be missed.
