“ Larry was such a good hearted man. He always smiled when talking to you. His conversations with you was always kind and meaningful. Larry loved church and his church family. But Mary!!! Larry loved this lady with his everything. If you ask him where's Mary? He would light up and start smiling before answering you. He loved his wife with his whole heart. Larry will be missed, But Mary your heart will hold him close until you see him again. Rest now Larry. God is preparing a better place and everlasting life for you. Thank you Larry for making my sister/friend so happy. Mary, smile through the tears until your heart heals and laughter and happy memories take over. God gave you a good husband and he a good wife. Amen. Mary, I love you.
