“ *I will never forget the day I met Ms. Lena at Oak Hill Elementary where her daughter Andrea was a 5th grade teacher. She was so petite and full of life that day and all enjoyed her! I often would tell Ms. Andrea Dowdy that I loved her tattoos and when I was 50 I would get one! Only to be told that Ms. Lena had me beat with some of her own. That day she revealed her tattoo and I was floored. From that day on if she could do it I could too (lol) and not be afraid. I am now 58 and have the courage to get one that represents my love for family as the Dowdy's do!! Thank you for the memory Ms. Andrea and Ms. Lena!
Gone but not forgotten, Prayers for strength as you all grieve your beautiful mother 🙏
