“Lonnie Mae is my friend. She is a good hearted, spirit- filled Christian woman, so humble, so caring and loving, with a good sense of humor. She was also so appreciative of anything people did for her. I love Lonnie Mae. I loved to see her working in her flower beds and sitting on her porch, and having good conversations with her. She has a wonderful smile that will light up any room! I speak of her in the Present because she never died, she just closed her eyes here, the angels came and escorted her to Heaven and she opened her eyes in the Presence of Jesus, (the One who gave His life for her) where she will be forevermore. I have some good memories of her and I will always cherish them. I feel very blessed to have known Lonnie Mae and look forward to seeing her again one day. If I could see her today and talk to her, Id' say, "Lonnie Mae, you're up there in Heaven having a good ole time with Jesus, your husband, family and friends and I'm still stuck in Covington! Doesn't hardly seem fair, does it? Heaven is such a promotion! Jesus said, "Eye has not seen, ear has not heard and neither has it entered into the heart of man what God has prepared for those who love Him!" All Honor and Praise be to Our Awesome God, The Great I Am!! The Savior of the World!!
