“ Dear Joseph, Kenny & Family: I am honored and blessed to have known "Aunt Lula" this past year. Our friendship was brief yet deeply meaningful. Her warm and inviting smile, loving spirit and kind words drew me in and I am a better woman for knowing her. "Let us never forget that this world and everything in it belongs to God" (Psalm 24). May you find comfort and assurance in the faith that your wife/Mother/Loved one has gone home to be with God. May her legacy of love live on through each of us. Peace be upon you.

“ Dear Joe and family: Alice and I are deeply saddened for your loss. Death is a terrible enemy. The Bible offers a wonderful resurrection hope for our loved ones. Jesus promised at Matthew 5:28,29 "Those in the grave will hear his voice and come out." May you find comfort in that hope. Be well my friend.

Bereavement is so personal that few of us, unless we have experienced it ourselves, can comprehend its grief. Your wife, Lulu was loved by all of us who were blessed to know and spent time with her. She was one of the loveliest women we have ever known. Her charm and warmth we will never forget. Joe, we know you are grateful for your life with Lulu, and we feel fortunate to have known her. My brother I know your courage and faith will help you through this rough time. Our love is with you. Sheku and Fatmata Tarawali
