“ My deepest sympathies to the Weaver family. Lyle was one of the true warriors that made West Point the amazing place that it is today. Lyle's work ethic and quiet nature were an inspiration to many of his football brothers. Be thou at peace.

“ One of the early memories I have of Lyle was when Langston, Lyle and my son Russell were playing in a pile of damp red clay behind the bleachers at his older brothers baseball game at Columbia. My wife was so mad but the smiles on their faces could calm anyone down. Rest in peace young man.
