“ Just remember the times when I would be hungry as a young boy and I would go into the kitchen to ask mom was dinner ready and she would say no but I could help if I wanted to get dinner sooner so I would put butter and sugar and seasonal on everything she wanted me too until I got a little more older to actually cook on the stove and when mom would visit me out of town she would make my favorite meals until one visit she wanted me to cook my favorite meals and she said my food cooking was better than hers but I knew better because I learned from the best...I love you mom... But the one thing I really learned from mom was family and unity we argue fight disagree in many ways but if someone outside the family had a problem with one then it's a problem with all the "SHELBYs"

“ My deepest condolences to Nygale, Mama Sharon and the rest of the family. Growing up in Peoria, I would be walking to Grandma Shelbys house and you would always know when you're getting close because that good aroma would smell up the block. Those were the good Ole days. She was like a grandma to me. She was a great woman. Rest well.
