“ I was saddened to hear of the passing of your Mother. While the loss of a loved one is never easy, it is certainly the hardest when they are taken away
You can most assuredly find comfort in remembering all that your mother brought to you and to every person whose life she touched. I remember when she came to visit my mother, your grandmother, bearing a beautiful bouquet of flowers, a box of cookies and the most beautiful and warm smile which I will never forget.
I so wish I could be there with you and the family but know that I am praying for you.
II Cor. 5:8 We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with Lord.
Love you much,
Aunt Carolyn Hurdle Hinton

“ I met Marva and her family, many moons ago as a little girl growing up in Colon, Panama on my visits to my grandmother on top Casa Heres on 12th street right across YMCA. Marva was like family to my family. She's responsible for my cousin's Marva (her tocaya) 50+ years of marriage to her husband Donnell, as she introduced them. You see, Marva was always fun loving, caring, giving and certainly the LIFE OF THE PARTY. Later on, as my best friend/sister Xiomara and I reconnected in New York, we visited Marva, we laughed at her jokes and enjoyed her meals and her hospitality. Always dancing, always joking. Her and her long life companion, uncle Renald, were always fun to be around.

I'm saddened by her departure, but I feel comfort and peace knowing that she is resting with our Lord and Savior Jesus. To Ernie and Dalys: Remember God's promise in John 16:22 "So with you: Now is time of grief, but I will see you again and you will rejoice, and no one will take away your joy."

She's victorious, as she may be absent in the body, but she's present with the Lord. I love you all and my heart is with you. Lidia McKenzie (C3)

“Mi amor” is what I used to call Maria when I would arrive and when I was leaving in the evening. I was one of Maria’s caregiver and the last one. Maria was a sweet, funny, sassy person she never fails to make me laugh. A word I would use to describe Maria is “Strong” after being with her for over two months and watching her health fluctuate never has she given up or even complained. It’s really and heartbreaking to see her go as I was next to her when she took her last breath. Let me not forget to mention how much how much I respect her son Mr Earnest he took care of his mother with so much love and patience likewise Miss Dalys they were so good to her right to the very end, I pray you guys receive supernatural blessings from above and thank you for welcoming me in your house and for the opportunity to take care of Maria. Rip mi Amor I know you’re in peace because you went so peacefully I miss you so much 💔🙏🏻💕

“ I met Ms. Marvelous Marva in September of 1998 along with her lifetime loving companion, uncle Ronald. Marva and I connected on all cylinders, as she was so loving and supportive of me dating her niece Xiomara. She loved to dance and could cook up some delicious meals. Going to visit her in Brooklyn, walking up those stairs to her apartment was always a treat. Once you arrived the party started. And the main drink of the evening was Panama's rum Cinco and milk. Lol

Auntie Marva was simply, a beautiful loving woman inside and out. She fought a good fight, and now the Good Lord has called her home to be among the other beautiful angels. May her sole rest in heavenly peace. Love forever, Arthur
