“ It has truly been a joy to serve as deacon for Sis. Dorsey at Antioch Lithonia Baptist Church. She brings light into our fellowship with her kindness and her laughter.

I've been blessed to share moments of prayer with her, to encourage her during challenges, and to celebrate the victories God has brought into her life. Her openness and trust have made my role not just a responsibility, but a gift.

Serving as her deacon has reminded me that ministry is about relationships—being present, listening, and showing Christ's love in everyday ways. I am grateful for her spirit and the way she enriches our church family.

“ Sending condolences, strength, and comfort from me and my family to hers. She was my typing teacher at NCHS and it really paved the way for my Clerical career learning. Fifteen years after graduating, her training enabled me to have a prosperous second job that has continued through retirement and I thank her for that. She was a wonderful teacher. Another one of teachers had enough confidence in me to allow me to typeset his Classroom tests. It all began with a manual typewriter and an eraser. Sleep well Mrs. Dorsey.

“ One of the more iconic women and educators that we've all had the chance to experience, in this lifetime, in one form or another. To God be the glory for allowing us to experience her presence for more than eight decades.

Condolences to Mrs. Mary Nolley Dorsey

I loved and admired Mrs. Dorsey from the time I was in her typing class at Pike County Consolidated High School in Concord, GA. She taught me, mentored me, and made me what I am today. She was my favorite teacher. I will NEVER forget her. Rest in Peace! Lonnie Jean Leeks-Willis -PCHS Class of 1966.
