“ At one time or another, Mike Thorne helped us all. He had wisdom and if you needed extra money, he had work for you. He helped in all the biggest emergencies. Mike had his ways of seeing the world, which could be called, "rough around the edges", but if you learned to look beyond the rough, you would witness the good in him. What a wonderful resource in this man. He was married to my only sister, Cassandra, for many years. Thorne had wisdom that you sought in the big delimas in life. If I had a problem to deal with, I would want to look at the issue from all sides, so that's what you got from him, a view of the issue that you may not have thought of. He was no yes man. You got his side, which is not what you get from everyone. He will be missed.

This is so sad, while he was living, he spoke on exactly how this would go down, not his last wishes, we are so sorry for our loss,

Gloria Evans - September 16, 2021 at 09:58 AM

*Bria,
I am so sorry for your loss. It is heart breaking to lose a parent. May God give you and your family peace.
