“ I remember Keishia going to Virginia with me for a whole week, that was the first time she ever went to Virginia We went to medical school together, I remember us playing hookie from school & 9-11 hit that very same day. Everytime I come to Georgia I go & see her. I remember us downtown Atlanta & we brought some hot fresh Krispy Kreme doughnuts & gave them to some homeless people on the church step. We share some real good times together. I loved that girl, I am so lost for words right now, the more I think about her the more I get full up, I know that GOD makes no mistakes & that there's know hurt sorrow that heaven can't heal. I love you so much Keishia, GOD has a real true angel in heaven & continue to look over us all. 🥰🥰🥰🥰

“ I am so sorry for your loss of this beautiful lady. I had only known Keshia a few months. She was a sweet and thoughtful lady. She loved her family and her church. She has gone way too soon. May God continue to give you peace only he can supply during your time of grief. I pray that he watches over her children and that they always know how much their mother loved them. May God please your family.
