“ I'm honored to offer tribute to Ms. Mildred. My most vivid memory of her is from 20 years ago, when she and my mother, Julia Jacobs, took to the dance floor together at the wedding reception for her son, Lanier, and my sister, Bionca. I recall how happy they both seemed that day.

I will miss her cheery smile, her lively conversation, and the taste of her fresh corn.

To her family: When someone so dear becomes a memory, it is very hard. My family is still digesting the passing of our mom from three years ago. Please take comfort in remembering how much Ms. Mildred loved you.

Rest in peace Mama Sims
