“ *Paul & Deborah, I am so saddened to hear of the sudden loss of your beloved sister / sister-in-law. The pain of such a loss is unbearable at times. I hope the comfort of remembering your relatives past whom had to live through and be strong in tough times such as this helps you both as much as that sentiment has helped me to be comforted in losses of my beloved family members. All of us whom know and love God know we do not have to worry that your loved one has peacefully transitioned to Heaven due to the righteous life she lived.
You All are in My & My Family's Prayers.*

“ To The Nolley and Glover family I was saddened to hear of Mordean passing. I was looking forward to visit with her when I come home. We grew up to gather in Oxford. I know that God will see the family through these difficult days ahead.
