To the Children and Family of Peggy Flint. Thinking of you all! I worked with Peggy at Walton Clothes in Loganville in the 70's. Peggy was a flap marker along with Ada Watson & Dora Cox, and between the 3 of them we were always entertained with their outgoing spirit!! I was the floor girl for the section. We had so much fun! I also had the pleasure of visiting in her home when her children were young. If we had to work on Saturdays Peggy would bring her children & I would bring my sisters to work with us. We only worked to 12 on Saturdays.. Those days were the best & Blessed. I heard she had some GOOD food at her little cafe on North Broad, I worked at Cato's then and Peggy would come in occasionally! I look forward to when our paths cross again in Heaven!!

*God Bless You All! Sincerely, Dianne Ray
