“Q” as he were affectionately known, was a phenomenal, respectable and kind young man. Always polite, never confrontational and sweet to his core. I had a chance to meet and connect with him through my nephews and I love the light he brought whenever he would visit. Once even bringing my mother flowers..... My heart is heavy, but I trust God. Know that my family and I are praying for your strength.

“ Quadarius,
I am truly going to miss you. My brother from another mother. We have so many special memories that I will cherish forever. Even though it hurts to know I won't get to see you physically, I know you're safe in the arms of Jesus Christ watching over us. We will meet again. Rest well and just know I will always have your family back. I love you bro.
