“ You have been in my life since I was 17 years old. When I married Adrian, I remember being confused on what to call you. You said that you wasn't my mother in law, but my mother and you have always treated me like a daughter. You will be missed very much. There are very few people I know that has your kind of spirit. Your grandkids will definitely miss you and your cooking. They remind me often that my cooking isn't your cooking. We love you!
