“ She was always a friendly and sweet lady, until she became sick, she would love to dance and have a good time, so now all she wants for children is to love each other and now you have another guardian angel watching over you

“ I am so honored to call this woman Sara Jo. I know she was my aunt but she was always my Sara Jo. I truly enjoyed being around her, singing in the choir with her at Macedonia, being at family gatherings. I love my auntie. Give my mom and dad some sugar for me. Let them know I miss them so much. Rest easy my favorite Aunt. You will forever be in my heart ❤️❤️❤️

Although I was an ex daughter-in-law, you always said I would be your daughter for life and you kept that promise as I knew how much you loved me and I loved you. You will be forever missed.

“ I remember my Mom hiking in the Rocky Mountains of Colorado. She had come for an extended visit with me and my family and we wanted to share with her one of our passions for living in the beautiful state of Colorado. Being a Georgia girl her whole life, it was wonderful to see her appreciate the majesty and grandeur of the Rockies. She was a true champ about the whole experience. We must have dragged her around those hills for 4 hours or more and she never said anything except how beautiful it was and “ this sure don’t look like Georgia “. She was and is a one of kind soul and I love the fact that I got to be her son for a little while. She is at peace now and I thank God that he allowed her to be my Mom. I Love You Sarah Joe (that’s what I called her).
