*She was such a gentle soul.
I recalled our last conversation where we chat for more than half hour .
I will forever treasure those moments.
Forever in our 💕
To the girls, take heart ,mommy lived an exemplary life ,just carry on her legacy.*

My first meeting of Sharon was when her Dad brought her and to our home in Patrick city. Quit but very nice and her Dad just showing off his bright daughter, she was attending Kingsway at the time. Later we became neighbors in Duhaney Park. Every word spoken in this service is an accurate description of who she was. RIP Sharon.

It was a pleasure & an honour to know & work with Sharon & become her friend. I will always cherish the long conversations we had. Sharon was committed, considerate, kind, charming, genuine & I could go on & on.

*I will miss you Sharon but I know you're in a better place 😊🌹❤️
I know she has left an awesome legacy for her 'girls' to follow 🙏.
Condolences to her daughters & other family members & friends 🙏🌹.
Walk good & rest in peace. Love always 💕🌹🙏*

“ Tribute to Ms. Whyte

Like the Rose of Sharon, my godmother, Sharon Whyte , was a rare and beautiful soul, one whose presence brought warmth, love, and light into the lives of everyone who knew her. She was more than just a godmother; she was a guide, and a steady source of wisdom and comfort.

Much like the flower that blooms with resilience and grace, Sharon Whyte faced life's challenges with unwavering strength and kindness. She had a way of lifting others, offering encouragement in moments of doubt and filling hearts with joy through her compassion. She embodied love in its purest form, a love that did not fade but grew stronger with time.

Though she is no longer with us, her spirit, like the Rose of Sharon, continues to bloom in the hearts of those she touched. Her lessons, her kindness, will live on through those who had the opportunity to meet her .I will forever cherish the moments we shared and hold onto the memories of her wonderful presence.

Rest peacefully, dear Ms. Whyte . You were, and always will be, a flower in full bloom, a true gift to this world that will never be forgotten. In my heart you'll live forever.

*With Love , your goddaughter
