“ My Family and I send our condolences to the family Shawna her twin myself and sister we all traveled to school on the same bus we often laugh and had lots of fun back then last time I saw her was at church her beautiful smile and funny wit will be missed. Her mom will be waiting for her as she comes into the gates of heaven. I know what it's like to lose your mother it's one of the hardest things to accept to the children stay prayed up and continue doing the things she wanted for you. Peace and blessings The Browns
