“ My aunt Shirley Ann was such a wonderfully loving and caring soul that spent her earthly days taking care of her children, family, friends and even strangers who needed a helping hand. She loved life and enjoyed a good laugh . My Aunt Shirley’s home was the one place that everyone in the family knew they could go to if they needed somewhere to spend the night or stay for an extended stay. She believed in God but’t wasn’t one for a lot of outward show of religion . She much rather preferred to demonstrate her love of God by how she treated other people. My Auny Shirley in her own quiet way made a tremendous impact on so many people simply by putting the needs of others above her own even when it brought suffering upon herself. I’m not talking about what I heard about her but I have personally witnessed consistently since I can remember . When she heard that I was going into the ministry, she was so happy and proud of me. Over the years she has called me for advice and comfort . My last conversation with her was the day she passed . She asked me to pray for her and I did. I will miss my Aunt Shirley but I have a firm hope that I will see her again in the earth made new . Good night my dear Aunt, see you in the morning!
