“ Stacey was my best friend in Beltzhoover Elementary School. She taught me sign language and I had so much fun in classes with her. My forever memory of Stacey is she taught me how to spell, along with sign language. I remember our 1st grade teacher Mrs. McEwen had this huge cookie jar on her desk filled to the top with plain M&M's, and she would make spelling so fun. Everyday, Mrs. McEwen would pass out goodies to the person that could spell a certain word. The word for that day was "coat". And whoever could spell the word "coat" would get 100 M&M's! And I was drooling for those M&M's! I couldn't spell that word for nothing in the WORLD. I spelled it KOT! And Ms. Stacey Gardenhire got up to the chalkboard and not only did she spell the word "coat" correctly, but she made a drawing of a coat on the board, AND she got those 100 M&M's! And she sat next to me in class, and she said, "I'm going to share these M&M's with you Nay Nay, and in return I'm going to teach you how to read"!! And she gave me HALF of her M&M's! NOT 5, NOT 10. HALF!! Stacey's generosity was INFINITE! She and I would trade our lunches with each other, we hung out in school, after school, and in the summertime. She taught me how to cornrow, and how to thread the hair beads at the ends. She even showed me how to make french toast! I have so many memories of Stacey. I feel sad, and I know she's with Our Father, but here on Earth, DOWN HERE, Stacey made a difference! Her love for people, and instilled empathetic personality went for miles!! I am going to miss you, my Dear friend. I love you sister. Rest With God, and I'll see you when I get to Heaven, so we can have our french toast breakfast!! Blessings and Peace. Love Always, your Sister in Christ.... Natalie

“ I will always remember Stacey as a goal-oriented friend who persevered through many challenges over the period of time when she worked toward her PhD. Some might feel she was unable to accomplish her goal, but I challenge that thought. Jesus “Paid Her Debt,” and I believe she graduated with honors, which only He could bestow upon her. Stacey finished her work and leaves a legacy to her children to follow hard after Him! I celebrate this mighty woman’s PhD! Well done, Stacey! Family, be proud of your mother and live daily in the Presence of the Lord!
