“ I met Carlos in the summer of 1999, just after high school, here in Arkansas. Even then, he was someone who carried so much life and joy wherever he went.

Carlos had a way of lifting people up. If you were having a bad day or feeling down, he would always find a way to make you smile and laugh, sometimes until you couldn't catch your breath. He never liked seeing anyone sad or upset around him; happiness seemed to follow him naturally.

One of my favorite memories is his ongoing joke about my mom's pot roast. It felt like every Tuesday he would call and ask, "What y'all eating over there..roast?" At first, I thought it was just a coincidence, but I eventually realized he only ever asked on Tuesdays. I couldn't hear anything in the background, and I figured out he was putting his phone on mute just to laugh. That was Carlos..playful, thoughtful, and always finding humor in the simplest moments.

Carlos was respectful, loving, and genuinely caring. He made people feel lighter just by being around him, and so many were blessed to know him.

To his beautiful wife and child, my prayers are with you.

To his parents, you raised a truly kind and respectful man who brought joy to so many lives.

And to his sisters, my prayers and deepest condolences are with you as well.

-Andrea(Dree)Turner

Carlos will always be remembered for the laughter, warmth, and light he shared with the world.
