“ My thoughts and prayers are with you and your whole family Michelle. When you told me tif had passed, i couldn't believe it, she was a beautiful person with a beautiful soul. I kown her since she was a baby. Everytime i seen her, she had a beautiful smile. God has gained an angel. Tif, you will be missed deeply but not forgotten

“ A thousand words won't bring you back, I know because I've tried, neither will a thousand tears, I know because I've cried. I have not just lost a very good friend I had but I have lost my partner in good and bad times. Your memories will always be there to fill the void you have left in my heart. "It is a great happiness to meet a true friend, and a great sorrow to lose you. You always helped me and I do not know how to thank you, until we meet again TIP. I love u, I love u, and I love u 🥹🥹🥹🥹

“ In 2016 u came into my life. U was their for me every step of the way. As a friend u help me love myself again and u was always their for me on my darkest days. U used to say to me God putting u in position for a major come back. You was so rite, I thanked u everday for being there when I needed u. We talked everyday r every other day. U always wanted what was best for me. U never judge me, u was a genuine friend, when I was down u always brought me up. We been through thick and thin together talking about each other issues in life. Today when ur mother call me and told me u was gone I shut down, I lost it, I couldn't work u mean so much to me. I honestly can say for the 5 years we knew each other u were the best friend I could ever have in life. They say a man and a woman cant be friends without benefits. We prove that to be wrong, we were friends to the end. Im so lost rite now, i just wanna know y Lord y Tiffany? This hurt me to my soul that u gone now. I love u baby girl u will always hold a special place in my heart I will never forget u, Until we meet again.
