“ Cynthia and Sebrina sharing my deepest sympathy with you and your family. Veronica was one of my dearest friends since our days together at UVA. I have memories of her kindness, generosity and spiritual love for all who knew her. The brightness of her spirit was central to our connection as friends. I will miss her but I can hold onto the joy she she brought into my life.

“ Veronica was a true friend she was always a great supporter. We both worked at the American Red Cross together. When my job at the Red Cross came to any end. Veronica was the friend to secure a job at Shire for me.

That was a friend that only God can provide for you. There was never a birthday or just to up lift me that I did not receive a card from her. Cynthia and Sabrina I will miss my friend Veronica dearly. You and the family are in my thoughts and prayers. Eternal rest granted unto my sister and may she rest in peace with the Heavenly Father. Sleep on my dear friend V.

I have known Veronica, Cynthia & Sabrena for over 15 years as my tax client family. When Veronica came for her annual tax visit this year, she was so kind to bring me a toilet paper offering with this COVID 19; such a wonderfully blessed spirit she had. She will truly be missed! Our prayers to the entire family as she is in her peaceful sleep.
