“ Bill,

What is life when it seems it's just about existence because you're struggling in the physical form. I know... Thank God that's over. Life isn't... As known by many, energy never dies, even as the flesh decomposes. Where ever you're present, may you continue to rest within this powerful Earth and Universe in a constant state of Peace, instead of in pieces! Your return has a natural gloom, but yet massive sunshine in my heart, because you are no longer a prisoner in your own skin. I free you...

I knew you, and intially cared for you as a child. To me you were "Bowling Bill". The rest is now history.

Thanks for helping my precious Mom see the world!

*Sincerely,
Cherie'*
