“ Herman,

I am so sorry that I am unable to be there personally as we celebrate your life during this sacred time of your Home Going.

The family has missed you so much during the long years of your illness and disability and we will miss you even more now that you have transitioned.

However we will never forget that sharp mental capacity and your keen intellect. And we definitely will never forget that wonderful sense of humor that cannot be duplicated or matched by any other family member!

*Sleep well and rest,
Your cousin, Janice*

“ My condolences in the loss of your loved one. When our loved ones fall asleep in death, the pain of grief seems unbearable. Our loving God Jehovah understands how we feel and he comforts us by means of his word the Bible. Hosea 13:14 says: From the power of the grave I will redeem them. From death I will recover them. The scripture at Psalm 147:3 is also very comforting; He (God) heals the brokenhearted; He binds up their wounds. May you be strengthen and encourage by God's word in the days and weeks ahead.
